Academic and Behavioral Standards

Carroll has a Code of Integrity to encourage respect for others and to promote academic honesty. Please review the Code of Integrity to become familiar with these standards.

Code of Integrity

Acceptable Use of Technology

When you use technology resources on campus such as computers, internet, social media, printers/scanners, etc., please adhere to the College s Standards of Acceptable Use of Technology Resources.

Acceptable Use

Attendance Policy

Regular attendance is an important aspect of your overall academic success. Read through Carroll s Attendance Policy so you know what steps to take if you must miss a class.

Communicating Course Concerns

If you have concerns about a course, first reach out to the faculty member to discuss. If the situation is not resolved, follow the steps of the Formal Complaint Process.

Formal Complaint

Title IX Statement

If you or someone you know has been a potential victim of gender based or sexual misconduct and you would like to report the incident, please contact the College s Title IX Coordinator in room A117 or email titleIX@carrollcc.edu.

In an emergency, please call X8123 on campus for Public Safety and Security, or 911 for emergency assistance.

Student Health and Wellness

College students often experience issues that may interfere with academic success, such as stress; housing, food or transportation needs; relationship concerns; or feelings of anxiety, hopelessness or depression.

If you or a friend are struggling, we encourage you to take advantage of our helpful and confidential resources, including our new virtual health and wellbeing platform for students, TimelyCare.
